

Instructions to Authors

Folia ethnographica publishes original papers from the field of ethnology. The articles are reviewed by external consultants.

Manuscripts and correspondence should be addressed to the editor: Jana Poláková, Etnografický ústav, Moravské zemské muzeum, Koblížná 1, 602 00 Brno, e-mail: jpolakova@mzm.cz

Manuscripts will be accepted in Czech, Slovak, English, German and French, in electronic form in Windows format MS Word, on CD or by mail in 2 printed copies. The articles should be printed or typed double-spaced, type size 12, on one side of paper with pagination. The deadline for manuscripts is April 15 of each year.

Each article must be accompanied by an abstract (extend according to that of the article), key words and summary (extend according to that of the article). The abstract and key words can be submitted in Czech (the editor cares for translation) or directly in English, the summary in Czech or directly in German, English or French.

References to the literature should be cited as follows:

(ZEMAN 1998, 25), as noted by Zeman and Dvořák (1999, 210) - if there two authors. Footnotes will be numbered with superscript.

The list of the literature in alphabetical order will be added below the text as follows:

DANGLOVÁ, Olga: Symboly panenstva v svadobnom obrade na Slovensku. Slovenský národopis 37 (1989), s. 57–70.

KOMOROVSKÝ, Ján: Tradičná svadba u Slovanov. Bratislava: Univerzita Komenského, 1976.

LENDEROVÁ, Milena – RÝDL, Karel: Radosné dětství? Dítě v Čechách devatenáctého století. Praha – Litomyšl: Paseka – Fénix, 2006.

VEČERKOVÁ, Eva: Strom v lidové víře a obyčejích. In: Tarcalová, L. (ed.): Kult a živly. Uherské Hradiště: Slovácké muzeum 1999, s. 99–115.

WINTER, Zikmund: Dějiny řemesel a obchodu v Čechách v XIV. a v XV. století. Praha: Česká akademie císaře Františka Josefa pro vědy, slovesnost a umění, 1906.

As for illustrations, only originals (black and white or colour photographs, pen-and-ink drawings) or digitised copies of high quality will be accepted. The number of illustrations must correspond with the extend of the text. Figure legends will be mentioned separately below the text of the article, in Czech or German/English (according to the language of the summary). Colour illustrations can be printed by prior agreement with the editor and with financial support by the author.

If the article is an output of a grant project, its title and the grant number will follow the text.

The final version of the reviewed manuscript should be supplied to the editor in electronic form (CD, diskette in format MS Word).

The editorial board decides the publication of the article on the basis of the reviews.

The author publishing in Folia ethnographica transfers his copyright on the article to the publisher. The authors receive 25 copies of reprints of their article and 1 copy of the whole magazine. A greater number of reprints is available on special arrangement with the editor.
